You are invited!

It is our pleasure to invite you to the 4th Global Users Meeting in Ion Chromatography from June 19 through June 21, 2023. Visit us at our International Headquarters in beautiful Switzerland and enjoy three days packed with information, discussions and entertainment.

TOPICS OF THE PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

- Boosting sample throughput: Metrohm Inline Sample Preparation (MISP)
- Prevention and troubleshooting: how to enjoy a carefree life with your IC
- A tour of our new IC-MS/MS demonstration laboratory for coupled systems
- Workshops and presentations on AOF and AOX analysis using combustion ion chromatography

You will have the opportunity to meet our professionals in R&D and application support, network with leading practitioners and scholars on state-of-the-art applications of ion chromatography, and see the facilities where our high-quality, Swiss-Made Metrohm instruments are produced. Participation in the Global User Meeting is free of charge and includes:

- All presentations & practical demonstrations
- Lunches and an official dinner event
- An afternoon in the hills of eastern Switzerland

Block June
19 through 21,
2023 now.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Herisau soon!
